The North American Die Casting Association is pleased to recognize Corporate Members with operations which have a strong focus on their employee’s safety and well-being. NADCA’s Safety Award Program was developed to honor Corporate Members that both exceed and meet the average U.S. national safety standards for all manufacturing in a given year. Companies that have maintained a safety record during 2016 with 0 lost days/transfers/restrictions are awarded with a “Perfect” award. Companies with DART (days away, restricted or transferred) records equal to, or less than 2.2%, the national average for all manufacturing in 2015, are recognized with an “Outstanding” award. This year, a new award has been introduced for companies making significant strides in plant safety improvements. The NADCA Progress Award for Safety Improvements recognizes companies with a recorded safety DART improvement of 25% or compared to the prior year. NADCA is pleased to recognize these award-winning companies.
